

The god of Knowledge

Genesis 2:17 but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, you shall not eat of it; for in the day that you eat of it you will surely die."

It is highly offensive when we hear that knowledge can become a "god", we understand that knowledge has been, and is most sought after throughout the history of mankind upon earth. Moreover, in today's world without knowledge we simply cannot survive let alone be successful.

Knowledge is the key to almost all endeavors of life, people spend hundred of thousands of dollars to get an education that will making them successful in this life. We can say it is a prizes worth as much as gold in helping ourselves and others. It can make a nation or break a nation. So what is the point in writing about knowledge as a "god?"

Proverbs 8:10 Receive my instruction rather than silver; knowledge rather than choice gold.

Knowledge has many good functions, a person may get a degree from a college, but until it is practiced the knowledge will not become valuable too ourselves and others. The problem with knowledge is people often put more emphasis on the knowledge than what it produces, and how it can help us and others.

Proverbs 10:14 Wise men lay up knowledge, but the mouth of the foolish is near ruin.

The real problem with knowledge is when we as humans put more on obtaining knowledge than it purpose, we confuse the practice of good works with knowledge as though knowledge produces good works. Knowledge is an object void of emotion, it is when we put knowledge into a good heart that it produces something tangible for other humans.

There are many teachers that teach in prestigious colleges that cannot practice what they teach it is to them the teaching of knowledge that is important. They have taken knowledge gained as a teacher and become a teacher with it, but it is not practiced. This knowledge can produce something if it is applied in real world. A teacher may teach business law, when in fact they have never ran a business. But it is the practice of knowledge that makes it into valuable tool for the good of others and ourselves.

Proverbs 13:16 Every prudent man acts from knowledge, but a fool exposes folly.

So the question becomes what is more important the knowledge, or the use of the knowledge in becoming a successful business person? But here in this writing we are speaking about knowledge that is most important too us, which is our eternal life with God.

Our having knowledge of the only true God, is not enough! But why? Our knowledge of God should lead us to a personal relationship with God, this knowledge must be practice and transformed into trust and love for God, which is faith. Our making knowledge more important than faith, thus, elevating knowledge to a position of a god, where we reject faith to please God, puts us upon the road to destruction.

Proverbs 29:7 The righteous care about justice for the poor. The wicked aren't concerned about knowledge.

ACCURATE KNOWLEDGE OF GOD

What is so called “accurate knowledge” of God, some would say everlasting life, but Jesus Christ said, that he is the “life” and those putting faith in him have life. So we would have to understand knowledge of God would need to exist in a symbiotic relationship with our faith, so that knowledge produces something useful too us ,and the human race.

Conversely, saying knowledge of God saves us, means faith does not, who in their right mind would remove faith from knowing God, when we are told that without faith we cannot please God? So the two must coexist in harmony for them to be useful to our everlasting life, would you not agree?

Knowledge alone will mislead us into all kinds of trouble as Christian's. Some have been lead astray by falsely called knowledge thinking they were absolutely correct in their understanding.

Proverbs 30:3 I have not learned wisdom, neither do I have the knowledge of the Holy One.

2 Timothy 3:7 always learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

Only later to find out they were wrong destroying their own faith, and some times the faith of others, moreover, knowledge coupled with experience in life changes our knowledge does it not? Life itself should teaches us understanding, but often it does not, so what does this mean?

It means what we thought as a child certainly has changed as we grown older, black, and whites are not always so clear, let alone important too us. What we thought was a mortal sin now may seems harmless when comparing it against human nature that we've learn as we grown older through our experiences, and failures.

So the question is; does our experience in life change our knowledge about God, and does this mean there can be no truth about God, or can we put faith in any so called knowledge about God because we are changing constantly in our knowledge by time, experience, and new discovery about God?

Knowledge Translated by Suffering

Jesus Christ while walking the earth made it clear that he was the "Truth and the Word of God" this would indicate that he as well as his Father never changes, but we do. An example to help us understand truth that does not change.

Romans 10:2 For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.

Some times we are told when we were kids, “you might as well get used to it the sun it going to come up each day and you have to face your problems”.

This truth may take us many years to accept, or digest, for us to translate it into reality of our life, subsequently, if we don't finally get it we may will not be able to face life head on, and be successful. We may chose to fight against it, but each day the sun will come up and we will either face problems on that day, or put them off for another day.

But the truth is the truth like it or not, changes in us does not change the most important truths about God, we just come to a better understanding of them as our knowledge grows by experiences, good, or bad, we must remember the most important truths here, that knowledge of God does not become truth unless we suffer in our present knowledge of Him. The most important truth of course is our relationship with God, and His Son Christ Jesus, this relationship cannot be translated from knowledge into truth, and faith without suffering for what is righteous.

2 Peter 1:6 and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control patience; and in patience godliness.

Our suffering because of our doctrinal beliefs does not necessarily mean we are suffering for righteousness sake, however, this does not mean we cannot learn in suffering for doctrinal belief, it just might well help us to understand at some point in our faith what Christ actually suffered for. But for this moment in this discussion let us concentrate on why we have to suffer?

Philippians 3:8 Yes most certainly, and I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, my Lord, for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and count them nothing but refuse, that I may gain Christ

All manner of knowledge to make it a part of us has to be consumed through suffering, that is, putting it into practice, which often mean going against our own will and that of others, overcoming our fears, and walking in faith, in this sense by our continuance in the application of our knowledge will eventually produce usable fruits for ourselves and others.

In this, and of itself, is a “truth” we must face in life if we are to be successful in life. It is a sun that comes up every day of our lives, we cannot avoid in becoming successful.

2 Peter 1:5 Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge;

In others words, we must become over-comers to live life to its full and to have good mental health. God did not change His universal truth(s) when we accept Christ Jesus, the same application of suffering in knowledge makes us into a Christ-like person, without this suffering nothing good will happen in fruits of righteousness by God's Holy Spirit.

James 5:10 Take, brothers, for an example of suffering and of patience, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

False Knowledge Produces Sour Grapes

The turning point for many Christian's in keeping their faith is their trusting in suffering that it is God's will for them. And more so, it is the same suffering they must continual in to maintain faith in God throughout their lives. However, a few years down the road it is easy to forget this, but why?. Let us here help define the above statement; the nature of all human being is to move on to maturity, maturity for those of the flesh mean being successful materially, having a handle on everything that comes their way as a successful adult. Moreover, it can mean in real terms, I have taken my licks when I was younger, now I want credit for my sufferings, and a little prestige from younger Christian's and my peers.

But for those mature in Christ as Christian's there are no sour grapes because they continual in the sufferings of Christ Jesus as long as they live in their flesh upon this earth, which means there is no vacation, and lovely stories while sitting in a golden chair expounding experiences to new students coming into our faith.

Those promoting this type of knowledge is false, as false as those making prediction of end times dates, claiming their knowledge is from God. Both will prove to be false when the sun comes up exposing them by the light as lacking endurance in suffering for knowledge producing real faith. Our sinful flesh wants credit for works, but works of our flesh, as the world knows them are actually dead works in Christ Jesus for Christian's.

Romans 5:3 Not only this, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering works perseverance;

Isaiah 53:11 After the suffering of his soul, he will see the light{So read the Dead Sea Scrolls and Septuagint. Masoretic Text omits "the light".} and be satisfied. My righteous servant will justify many by the knowledge of himself; and he will bear their iniquities.

What does this mean? It means this, a good fruit tree produce good fruit the fruit is the product of the tree, we as Christian's are not the tree, so who is the tree? It is Christ Jesus, we are a part of him, and because we are a part of him we produce his fruits as the good tree or vine? But it is not our own good fruit, we are but the branches and fruit on the vine of Christ Jesus.

This mean to us as Christian's we must suffer "in the Christ", or for the Christ to produce the fruits of his vine. We produce nothing outside of Christ Jesus for God's will to be uses in His Kingdom. So how can we retire as a branch having no control over the good vine? Retire as it were as a prestigious Christians with many good experiences, and take credit for what we have done, which is nothing in producing our good fruits?

Isaiah 53:3 He was despised, and rejected by men; a man of suffering, and acquainted with disease. He was despised as one from *whom men hide their face; and we didn't respect him.

Isaiah 53:4 Surely he has borne our sickness, and carried our suffering; yet we considered him plagued, struck by God, and afflicted.*

*John 15:1 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the farmer.
John 15:2 Every branch in me that doesn't bear fruit, he takes away. Every branch that bears fruit, he prunes, that it may bear more fruit.*

15:3 You are already pruned clean because of the word which I have spoken to you.

15:4 Remain in me, and I in you. As the branch can't bear fruit by itself, unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in me.

Knowledge to God must be usable knowledge translated by our experiences in suffering for the Christ as a part of him. Otherwise it is falsely called knowledge producing nothing good for the body of Christ Jesus.

1 Timothy 6:20 Timothy, guard that which is committed to you, turning away from the empty chatter and oppositions of the knowledge which is falsely so called.

Love Translate Knowledge into Faith

Here we find the key to “knowledge” all that we may know of God must be translated into love for God, or it is useless knowledge. Most of us will take a stand on knowledge believing we are compromising our faith, we spent much more time in this than love, thinking this is love, but is it?

Ephesians 4:13 until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a full grown man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ.

Philippians 1:9 This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment.

How much knowledge would we need to have everlasting life with God, furthermore, how accurate who that knowledge have to be, or pure would it need to be too have eternal life with God, and His Son Christ Jesus? On the other hand, how much of God's love would we need to have eternal life with God?

2 Corinthians 6:6 in pureness, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in sincere love.

1 Corinthians 13:8 Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will be done away with. Where there are various languages, they will cease. Where there is knowledge, it will be done away with.

The bible shows that some verily knew God, but were given life, while others practice the law for years in accurate knowledge of God and lost their life. So it is the application of knowledge in love that gives us a personal relationship with God and eternal life, or accurate knowledge of God?

1 Corinthians 13:2 If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but don't have love, I am nothing.

A Whole Nation Missing God's Love by Knowledge

The nations of Israel receive God's Law as His chosen people, but thousands of years later they rejected God's love too them in Jesus Christ, their knowledge prevented them from accepting Jesus Christ, how could such a thing happen? They had false knowledge of God, but how after studying the scriptures fro thousands of years? They failed in not loving God, their knowledge simply did not translate into love for God, in fact, they proved to hate God, from God's own laws killing His Son!

John 5:39 "You search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life; and these are they which testify about me.

This is vital to Christian's, as knowledge increase love can cool off, but why, it seem backwards? And it is backwards, knowledge should helps us to define a subject, it helps us to take steps towards producing something from our knowledge, but it is not the end result, it is a step towards a result.

Knowledge can also let us take things for granted, the more knowledge we have of a subject the less we stand in awe of it. For example our sun, where past humans on earth stood in awe even though it was false knowledge of the sun, we now have tons of knowledge about our sun, and we take it for granted, it is nothing more than so and so.

Knowledge can also creates fear causing a lack of faith, parents after rising their kids would not want another new family starting over again at their age, but why? Because of their knowledge of all it takes to rise a family into days world, they would think themselves into a hole. With a thousands objection from finance, health, college, and being able to work into old age, and so on.

Knowledge, can make us proud, so we refuse to listen. Pride does not usually come from a lack of knowledge, but from some knowledge in which we think we know more then others. Knowledge of God is no different, we may have spent years in our doctrines helping others, over coming objections, and simply know beyond a shadow of a doubt we have it right and refuse to listen to any other point of view. The Jews did that with Christ Jesus, and even some of the Apostles did the same after Christ death only to find out their faith is not set in stone of laws.

Accepting the Truth as Living Waters

Have you ever noticed from the Old Testament into the New Testament that the worship of knowledge changed into “Truth”, and spirit, but why?

Knowledge from the prophets and others were to lead them too the “Truth”, so they could worship in spirit a God who is Spirit, which Christ Jesus explained, so those things written on paper could never give us the “Truth”, that is, Jesus Christ. And here is a warning for Christian's doctrine, or books teaching us about God ,and Christ Jesus cannot give us the Truth.

Here we find a vast difference that most Christian's never get, we are given the truth, that is, we are given the life of Christ Jesus in us. In our sufferings for having the life of Christ Jesus in us, we are translated into God's love, so when we understand love, we have the Truth, which is Christ Jesus.

The truth in us as “living” truth(s) it is not dead on paper, or written upon some document stating doctrines of truths. It is life, living in full spiritual existence raised in the Kingship of Christ Jesus. We know the truth, by the life of Christ Jesus in us, which is the Truth of God. But here is the caveat for Christian's where knowledge is elevated above love, it becomes falsely called knowledge, and will misled us into the works of our flesh.

It is our suffering in knowledge correct or otherwise that Christ translates us into love, or pure faith for God, at that moment we have the truth in us. But we as humans are never the truth, we cannot pridefully say we have the truth by our teachings. We are given the truth, by God, and His love, we have a gift of the life of Christ provide we suffer together in our faith.

Truth That Breaks Human Laws

People naturally break laws, it is our nature not obey, and that is why laws are created to protect others from laws breakers and give order to society. So when we say truths that break human laws, we are not at all talking about a sinful desire to break law here.

What we are saying here is human laws do not control God, that almost seems needless to say, but say it we must, because within man's laws faith is often found in going against them in love. Abraham broke man's laws to offer up his son on the altar too God, nothing within his society would have allowed for murder of his son by what every name was attached to it.

For Abraham to find the truth of God, he had to break laws, those laws he held dear to heart because of love of God, you see, then faith is living, it is not dead found upon past acts of faith or by doctrine.

Faith is life, as life changes according to experiences so does our faith, in God. What! Yes, faith is living in us, in Jesus Christ, that is how we receive our faith, not by our own life, but by the life of Christ Jesus, we are given a measure of his faith by his live in us. This faith cannot be measure by human law, human thinking formed into doctrines defining faith in God.

Faith is according then to God's will, and not our own needs, for it to be translated into love and immortal life with God and Christ Jesus. It is a personal as a finger print, unique too each one of us, which become part of us as life, until our personality it completed by our faith. Then our personality will conform to Christ Jesus personality in love for our Heavenly Father.

Led by Spirit Not Feed by Doctrine

So are we led by Holy Spirit or feed by doctrines of our faith? The winds blows where it wants, translating Christ Jesus words here, we are at the will of the Spirit of God, it blow where we need to be to make our faith perfect in love.

We as Christians worship in Spirit and Truth, we do not worship in Doctrine and Knowledge, there is a vast difference is there not? Our very life, which is the life of Christ Jesus in us stands against false knowledge, because we have truth of Christ Jesus life in us.

Many Christian's stop dead in their faith at doctrine, they simply cannot go beyond the dead works into the living faith of Christ Jesus and allow themselves to be lead by Holy Spirit. They fear being mislead and distrust all knowledge outside of their doctrine. But this fear in and of it self is a lack of faith, and not love for their Father, but why?

Let us use a couple of examples, to ally that fear. Those clinging to doctrine as living works of Christ Jesus do so for safety not trusting themselves and certainly not trusting others, they believe their faith can be stolen by others. They are much like children clinging to the edge of a pool, in fear of the deep water. Secondly, without faith we cannot please God, knowledge as discussed above does not give us faith, it is the life of Christ Jesus that gives us our faith, we will be lead into various trials as Christ Jesus himself was to perfect his own faith in love.

Abraham did not say show me someone else acts of faith in your word God so I can judge my own faith against theirs to see if your really asking me to do this thing. Christian's have built up a whole system of dead works on paper claiming that faith works this way or that way based on examples in the bible.

When we as Christian's come past that false knowledge and come to the understanding of living faith by the life of Christ Jesus in us, we understand the uniqueness of our individual personality with God as a child being formed into Christ personality where our faith is alive and growing in all kinds of direction perhaps not recorded in God's written word.

The story of Abraham become knowledge that leads us to a faith producing good fruits from Christ Jesus and not ourselves. We allow ourselves to be lead and not feed doctrines confining us too dead works from a lack of faith. We come to know God as love more, and more as we grow in our faith.

Growing in Faith Perfecting Knowledge

Faith has been written about in thousands of books, the subject has been wore out and still it is a mystery to most Christian's, yet it something so simple as trusting in those we love. But because we find ourselves in the flesh, where trust is given by measure as one proves themselves to us, how indeed can we trust someone we cannot see, like God?

Simply put we cannot without faith, and this requires help from God, we must remember that our faith, and our life with Christ Jesus is not man made by obeying a set of rules just like others do so we may progress from holding tight to these rules.

From the day we accept Christ Jesus we do so by our faith in him. Yes, we must have some knowledge of God's goodness, and this usually has been given us unwittingly by God working from heaven through his Son and holy angels, beyond our knowledge, as God searches our hearts opening doors and closing them in events in our lives. He has seen we have a heart looking for answers and truth, and provides us the way to come to His love in Christ Jesus. By the time we actually come in contact with some one of faith we may have been being prepared from time we were a child, and not even knowing it?

Our entire life in Christ Jesus is a gift of God's love, when the Holy Spirit helps us connect the dots, so to speak, we finally realize there indeed is a God of the Heavens looking to help us. We cannot say why, but that He is good and love, we cannot understand why He would take time with us, when there are so many better people, but we accept, knowing that if God says so, it is so.

This is faith, which is trusting God, later as we study to make ourselves approved of God we find the more knowledge we have does not give us more faith. In fact, it may take us out of our simple faith. We find this knowledge makes us work to have God's approve where before we simply had to accept His approve based on His love.

So we start seeking greater knowledge to make ourselves worthy of what God gave us "Freely" out of His love? How sad is that? We cannot accept any longer God's love, our understanding of God is by falsely called knowledge we have made it a god over God. We have listen to the voice of Satan at the tree of good and evil, saying, "watch out God is tricking you it can't be so easy, He is not love, he is withholding something good from you, you must judge for yourself by accurate knowledge to gain God's love".

But my dear friend knowledge cannot be perfected without love, and love has no fear of judgment, cling to judgment at the side of the pool will not allow you to walk on deep waters in your faith.

So one finds themselves stuck in death, dead works by knowledge of doctrine thinking it safe, and convincing others to stay with them, by a show of Christian good works of their faith, while all the while living in fear of God's judgment, proving they faith in Christ Jesus is gone.

Living Faith That Moves Mountains

Will Christ Jesus find faith on earth when he returns? A question that has plagued those living according to doctrine for thousands of years, fear begets fear, while love begets trust in God.

When ever we start from self in our relationship with God we lose, we find ourselves under judgment and fear, but do you know why? We are not worthy and every thing in knowledge within God's word tells us just that. Even the good stuff seems to have little clauses in them catching us in darkness and judgment of God.

If we cannot separate ourselves into two parts that of sin and that of faith in God we lose again. If we could be the very best person on earth and everyone from small to the great told us so, we would not be worthy of everlasting life, so why do we try to earn it by good works?

Because it is our sinful nature, like the sun comes up and we have to accept that fact in life, for us to move on into maturity we have to accept the fact of what we are as human or we cannot move on into maturity as a Christian'. The truth of sun coming up each day is for Christian's, will never be worthy enough in God's eyes, we are not hated by God for this truth, it is nothing more then our true condition as sinful humans according to God's standards of love. Most Christian's once they accept Jesus Christ think they must prove they are worthy by good works. But the good works come from their need to prove themselves accepted by Jesus Christ, but not from Christ Jesus.

This false knowledge only adds to their fear of judgment, so where they become a robot repeating words to make themselves feel better. Most of their efforts are used up convincing others of their worthiness, by meetings, talking to others, and so on. But the question is how hard does and good fruit tree work to produce good fruit, or is it as natural for it to produce good fruit as waiting for the season for fruit?

Let Christian's remember it is trust in God that produce good fruit which comes from Christ Jesus through us. It is this faith Christ Jesus is looking for when he returns there is no mystery in what type of faith it is, it is spirit lead faith, the faith of Abraham going beyond laws, the faith Christ Jesus and his Apostles had, when God spoke by spirit they listened and trusted it was right, spirit lead Christians have faith because it is from the Spirit that leads them their faith is given too them.

Unworthiness of Self into Worthiness of Christ Jesus

We are never good enough, we can never process enough knowledge to save ourselves, or do enough good works; as a Christian's we know that as a truth in our minds, but has in been translated into our hearts?

Can you imagine one day your hand could speak and say too you, what must I do to get life from the rest of the body?" How strange would that be, and what if it continued to ask you over and over again every few minutes? Then it started pleading with you, look how many good works I've done, how many times I did the will of the body in serving it".

Well there is no answering this kind of foolishness, so we won't try, the point is the hand because it is a hand in the body already has life, and does good works, but it is false knowledge where it thinks it has a brain so it gets into trouble by this false knowledge, which produces a lack of faith in God's love.

We are part of the body of Christ Jesus, of course we have no idea what part we are, and there is no knowledge that will tells us, but we are not concern with fleshly thoughts of position rather, we should be thankful too God for such love of the body in us.

A Gift of Christ Jesus Righteousness

It is wonderful to receive a gift from some one that loves us it fills our hearts with such deep appreciation, as though their love was not enough, here they given more to us a gift, what a blessing.

Moreover, for a Christian's to finally understand that their worthiness is a gift of Christ Jesus righteousness, what a blessing upon a blessing from God's love.

We now able to rest for the first time in someone else strengthen and not our own, we can stop trying to prove ourselves to others by good works, we can trust in God's love. It takes most of our energy each day to justify our existence as human being before those demanding proof by our good works. But isn't it nice to know we are, but a lily of the field that God has taken ownership of, and we grow just as He please, and in His own way, and in his time?

Matthew 6:28 Why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin.

Luke 12:27 Consider the lilies, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

Thus, we can rest in Christ Jesus whereas a church group, or religious organization demand hard rules to prove ourselves we are no longer in the picture, but it is Christ Jesus and his "righteousness" they are not judging us, but the righteousness of Christ Jesus! This freedom is real and priceless, that is, we are accept by God in Christ Jesus as a body member, and because we are created for a purpose as a body member therein, we must hold true to this freedom rather others or even ourselves completely understand it or not.

James 2:12 So speak, and so do, as men who are to be judged by a law of freedom.

Wondrous it is to rest in Christ Jesus trusting he will produce good fruit through us, not the fruits of doctrine which defining good works, but resting in the Holy Spirit where Christ Jesus righteous fruits come to us in love, guarantee, by God's promises. That we know longer need to qualify ourselves for some special work, but rather it is our faith in the Holy Spirit, which will lead us too our work as God's children.

Philippians 1:11 being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

James 1:18 Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

Philippians 1:11 being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

This is why my dear friend that without faith we cannot please God in any manner, but do you understand what resting in God really means? Christ Jesus is our righteousness so we can stand before God. Our righteousness was not enough, so good works from us or our own righteousness does not matter, it is our faith in Christ Jesus good works, and his righteousness that we stand.

Titus 3:5 not by works of righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy, he saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit.

Philippians 3:9 and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith.

Christ Jesus righteousness was given to us as a gift, imputed too us, God does not look at us, He looks at Christ Jesus righteousness, or his worthiness from now on. We are bought by God's love, we are made into the body of Christ Jesus, we receive all the gifts coming too the body by Christ Jesus goodness, and not our own. We cannot prove what is impossible to proved by knowledge, or any other means upon earth.

Christ Jesus has already proved it for us, we must accept that, and rest in him the great Sabbath day of God. Defining fruits, knowledge, end times prophecy, or whatever else does not make us worthy. Resting in faith is what God has given us in Christ Jesus, that is, He will supplies us all other things we need of our faith and eternal life.

The simple faith the size of a mustard seed is greater than all knowledge of the world without love for God, and this is the faith Christ Jesus is looking for in us.

Conclusion of the Matter

Let us not become darkness because of so called light of knowledge, let us become son's of light in love, and trust in our Heavenly Fathers' promises too us.

God is light and all good gifts come from Him, doctrines are written for fear of judgment, which build safety zones for so called faith. But living faith cannot be contain like the wind, it blows where it wants. God cannot trick us, or lie too us, for Christ Jesus is seal in us, it is the knowledge outside of Christ Jesus that has mislead so many since Christ Jesus time on earth, yes! Test the spirits, but how?

By God's love; can love judge, and do evil, or does it force others into doctrines of faith by tricky of men. Does love long for position of power or greed?

Does love work evil towards our neighbor? When we fear we are not in love, when we trust the God of love good fruits must come too us, where we understand knowledge is but a tool that leads us to God's love we will find life. If we cannot trust the invisible God of love who does only good towards us who indeed can we turn as people?

Many evil works have been done in the name of religion, with the best of intentions, but they where not of God, they were done by dead works of doctrine claiming God's love. Let us move on into love through truth, let us ask for the truth of Jesus life in us, and then let us believe in the witness given too us as the only truth we need.

1John 5:10 He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who doesn't believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son.
