

Job The Accused!

Job 31:35 oh that I had one to hear me! (behold, here is my signature, let the Almighty answer me); let the accuser write my indictment!

An indictment formally charges a person with a criminal offense. ... During an indictment proceeding, a grand jury determines that there is adequate basis for bringing criminal charges against a suspected criminal actor.

A written accusation charging that an individual named therein has committed an act or omitted to do something that is punishable by law.

An indictment is found and presented by a Grand Jury legally convened and sworn. It originates with a prosecutor and is issued by the grand jury against an individual who is charged with a crime. Before such individual may be convicted, the charge must be proved at trial Beyond a Reasonable Doubt.

The purpose of an indictment is to inform an accused individual of the charge against him or her so that the person will be able to prepare a defense.

What is written on our hearts an indictment or God's love?

Revelation 12:10 I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now is come the salvation, the power, and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ; for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night.

There seems to be only two camps regarding Job's trial thousands of year ago, few are in the camp of God's own judgments of Job. Most are in the camp of accusing Job of some unrighteousness that he did while under trial and being interrogated by Satan the Devil and his false friends.

Who is the prosecutor us, God, or Satan?

This article stands on the side of the only judgment that counts; the judgment coming from the ultimate King of all eternity YHWH. He is where life starts, and it is where all future life must exist in God's perfect infallible judgment of all His son's, spirit, and physical alike.

1 Peter 3:10 For, "He who would love life, and see good days, let him keep his tongue from evil, and his lips from speaking deceit.

So let us be reminded from the outset what God's judgment of Job was before we flawed human with far less wisdom decided that Job actions condemned him while under trial.

Job 1:1 (CSB) There was a man in the country of Uz named Job. He was a man of perfect integrity, who feared God and turned away from evil.

Job 1:7 (BBE) And the Lord said to the Satan, Where do you come from? And the Satan said in answer, From wandering this way and that on the earth, and walking about on it.

Job 1:8 (CEB) The LORD said to the Adversary, "Have you thought about my servant Job; surely there is no one like him on earth, a man who is honest, who is of absolute integrity, who reveres God and avoids evil?"

Did God Impute Evil to Job?

Here God stated the final absolute highest judgment about Job, let us not forget this or we ourselves will found in the wrong camp!

1 Thessalonians 5:15 See that no one returns evil for evil to anyone, but always follow after that which is good, for one another, and for all.

God stated of Job that, his heart, his mind, and his very soul was not flawed but "perfect"; do we judge ourselves as Job's equal?

So what scales of judgment do we choose, God's judgment, or that of some human flawed with sin, thus, making Job less than perfect in God's eyes, and unwittingly taking the side of the accuser? That's a vital question if we are to read and understand Job, and the book about the man called Job.

Rom.12:9 Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil. Cling to that which is good. 12:10 In love of the brothers be tenderly affectionate one to another; in honor preferring one another;

WHAT ACCUSER'S CAN'T UNDERSTAND

Luke 10:21 In that same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I thank you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight."

What those reading Job with a critical eye can't get, that is, those looking for evil in Job's eye they are making themselves evil, and once in that camp the light in them becomes darkness. They cannot divide light from darkness while in darkness!

Matthew 6:23 But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

Furthermore, their imputing evil not just to Job, but also to God himself. Blinded by their own self-righteousness they search Job's every word to catch him in a flaw and in doing so somehow making them more enlightened than God and Job, as if God consulted with them personally to improve upon his judgment of Job.

(Job is a tiger person his defense of himself tigers self-righteous people into despising him, exposing who they are through Job's defense of himself.)

Proverbs 18:2 A fool has no delight in understanding, but only in revealing his own opinion.

Isa. 40:13 Who has directed the Spirit of Yahweh, or has taught him as his counselor? 40:14 Who did he take counsel with, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of justice, and taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding?

40:15 Behold, the nations are like a drop in a bucket, and are regarded as a speck of dust on a balance. Behold, he lifts up the islands like a very little thing.

Job's ordeal gets a hold on sin and breaks up the Devil's power!

However, in their self-flattering/ignorance imputing unrighteousness too Job and God they overlook God did not judge Job at all! Satan did, and they are!

And that's how Satan used Jobs friends to interrogate Job. God instead expressed implicit trust in Job, Satan on the other hand hated Job's integrity towards God. God's opinion of Job never changed instead it was the evil interrogators mouths that were shut as liars at the end of Job's trial thousands of years ago.

But not for the fool living today as back than consumed with their own personal opinion more than Job's integrity and God's complete trust in his servant they belittle him, and slander Job's good name still!

They search for bad in Job while making excuses for his interrogators tormenting of Job while under trial doing the very will of Satan!

Psalms 10:2 In arrogance, the wicked hunt down the weak. They are caught in the schemes that they devise.

2 Corinthians 11:19 For you bear with the foolish gladly, being wise.

Ephesians 5:15 Therefore watch carefully how you walk, not as unwise, but as wise;

Proverbs 26:12 Do you see a man wise in his own eyes? There is more hope for a fool than for him.

In other words, they seat themselves into the judgment seat of God, taking His position simply because they have no real integrity. Thus, just as all human do they judged from their own reflection of their own misguided heart. Moreover, like Satan himself who felt entitled to God's position that is why he question God's love for Job, so do those thinking they can question God's perfect judgment of Job!

(Forgetting completely God had the book of Job written by his Holy Spirit, the Holy Spirit does not lie, God defend Job's "perfect" integrity.)

Hebrews 6:18 that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to take hold of the hope set before us.

Job 2:3 Yahweh said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? For there is none like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil. He still maintains his integrity, although you incited me against him, to ruin him without cause."

Jer.17:9 The heart is deceitful above all things, and it is exceedingly corrupt: who can know it?

Psalms 25:21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for you.

Proverbs 29:10 The bloodthirsty hate a man of integrity; and they seek the life of the upright.

Proverbs 20:6 Many men claim to be men of unfailing love, but who can find a faithful man?

The question really should be; how many of us on earth today and back than did Satan find who were upright like Job?

Psalms 138:6 For though Yahweh is high, yet he looks after the lowly; but the proud, he knows from afar.

Unfortunately, the way most Christian's tell the story of Job they focus on flaws in Job instead of the wickedness Job's accuser heaped upon him for no reason while he was enduring a trail that no human being had ever dealt with before, let alone God had recorded in writing so at least we human could understand what was really going on in the spirit world.

James 4:6 But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble." {Proverbs 3:34}

The Proud Magnifying the Dot at the end of Sentence!

Jesus state at his time on earth most of God's people were gulping down an entire camel while chocking on a gnat.

Matthew 23:24 You blind guides, who strain out a gnat, and swallow a camel!

Its like the person that does drugs, smokes, eats fatty food, lives in uncleanness and than throws a fit when finding a piece of hair in their food!

So many Christian's today will chock on Job's replies to his accusers making his arguments far greater weight than his unwavering integrity to God.

They simply and arrogantly dismissing God's own faithful perfect judgments of Job, for their own proud personal judgment or some written judgment by some so called scholar declaring evil as good, and good as evil, taking the side of Job's false friends and justifying their cruelty while denying Job the same equal justice under God law.

In other words, the friends set fat while Job starved so instead of feeding job they punished him for starving calling it God's wrath on Job!

Job 29:14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me. My justice was as a robe and a diadem.

Job 32:9 It is not the great who are wise, nor the aged who understand justice.

Job 34:12 Yes surely, God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert justice.

Psalms 96:10 Say among the nations, "Yahweh reigns." The world is also established. It can't be moved. He will judge the peoples with equity.

Matthew 5:6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled.

Reality or Shadowy Darkness!

When a court of law meets to try someone that person is being tested severely by his accusers; that is what the term trial means according to the law. But what if the person being tested says a word that sounds self-righteous does that make him/her guilty?

In other words, does a word in a trial make the innocence guilty? Or rather the evidence that the person broke the law? What if there is no evidence just wicked words imputed to the excused is that God's standard of justice?

Law.

- 1.the examination before a judicial tribunal of the facts put in issue in a cause, often including issues of law as well as those of fact.
- 2.the determination of a person's guilt or innocence by due process of law.

The act of trying, testing, or putting to the proof.

test; proof. an attempt or effort to do something.

In other words, we know your guilty so were just waiting for one word out of context not said perfectly or correctly which will prove your guilty hiding evil in your heart!

Jeremiah 17:10 I, Yahweh, search the mind, I try the heart, even to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings.

Had God not already tested Job's heart and give public announcement of Job's integrity? Who than is the fool if not those going beyond God's judgment?

Matt.

7:1 "Don't judge, so that you won't be judged.

7:2 For with whatever judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you. 7:3 Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye?

7:4 Or how will you tell your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye;' and behold, the beam is in your own eye?

No! Don't get this backwards the test by legal trial is not about us or our feelings. Job's test was not about us, ever! His test was settled by God long before any of us where birthed into this world. Emotional words are not material facts of evidence used in a legal trial by God nor mankind's courts.

Deuteronomy 32:4 The Rock, his work is perfect, for all his ways are justice: a God of faithfulness and without iniquity, just and right is he.

A legal trial should be about material facts tested against the law, did the person break the law, or not? A legal trial's is not about "I can't stand some person words", hate their looks, color of skin age or even what they did in their past! Its not about if the person acted wrongly while being accused. Job was not being tried by God, So are we in the camp of the fools basing our judgment on words and feelings who lying say God is Job and us with evil?

James. 1:13 Let no man say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God," for God can't be tempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one.

James. 1:16 Don't be deceived, my beloved brothers.

1:17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, nor turning shadow.

You cannot convict someone of a crime because they look guilty, and/or for saying something unkind!

This trial was about God, would anyone serve him if he did not give them material things and protect them? In other words, Satan said people only serve God for what they can get! The test written in God's inspired word (In the book of Job) was about that test not if Job was guilty of wrong while being tested! Just what type of thinking is that placing oneself precariously on the side of wicked interrogators who ended up hating God and Job, and completely denying Gods own perfect justice about Job!

What Did Job Know and When Did He Know It?

Have you honestly thought about that question? What did Job know, and when did he know it? If you have judged Job guilty of self-righteousness as most Christian's do in today's world than if your a righteous judge and you judge righteously wouldn't you want to know what Job knew about his test before he was tested? Moreover, shouldn't we know if Job knew he was being tested or not?

2 Thessalonians 3:2 and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for not all have faith.

1 Timothy 6:4 he is conceited, knowing nothing, but obsessed with arguments, disputes, and word battles, from which come envy, strife, reviling, evil suspicions.

Let's make this personal because that really what's judged here, not facts of law, but Job's "personality"!

All unrighteous judges make personality flaws more important than facts of law that is why all their judgments are wicked to God! Using personality to discredit a person, and stops anyone from listening or hearing the person is a denial of all truth, personally Christ Jesus who is the truth!

Job 19:18 Even young children despise me. If I arise, they speak against me.

2 Corinthians 10:10 For, "His letters," they say, "are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is despised."

Matthew 18:10 See that you don't despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven.

However, if we speak truth and Spirit, Job is just one more person found in God's written word the bible that offends Christian's and non-Christian's alike because their personality do not fit into the so called, nice, sweet and loving Christian's pseudo sweet yeast pie of false humility!

Christ, Paul, and so many others are on that list that false religion has mock, critic and apologize for, for thousands of years.

Ephesians 5:6 Let no one deceive you with empty words. For because of these things, the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience.

1 Thessalonians 2:5 For neither were we at any time found using words of flattery, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness (God is witness),

Apologists, tend to be seen in a negative light, as defensive people who make excuses. The word apologist comes from the Greek word apologia, meaning "speaking in defense." Not all apologists are bad news; some just defend an unpopular idea. Even though apologist is similar to apology, don't confuse them — if you make an apology you're admitting to being wrong. But if you're an apologist, you justify your belief or action, and would do it all again!

An apologist is a person who argues in favor of something unpopular. If you're an apologist for deep sea oil drilling, you would argue that drilling in the ocean is necessary and the benefits make up for any environmental damage.

By:Vocabulary.com

Does God need you to apologize for Job? Did God apologize or make excuses for Job? No! God made His judgment true and perfect he can't apologize for perfection!

So let put ourselves in Job's position since it is his personality on trial here, is it not?

So one day you wake up and find your home, your work, your family all taken from you. Fire comes out of heaven like God is really mad at you and consumes your live stock and/or your stock market portfolio. To make matters worst all your Christian's friends think God is pushing you for some hidden sin, and/or sins.

Not just that, if that isn't bad enough your health is taken from you, and you look so wretched that your friends don't even recognize you any longer!

This is real, not some church story or some picture book for kids, and now your being judged by your religious friends because you have no idea what you have done too God or anyone to deserve this judgment and your saying it out loud because of being in such excruciating pain.

The saying out loud the self-righteous hate

Your being judged for your heart break and excruciating pain, your reputation ruined family and those you love taken. But where are your comforters; don't they remember anything good you have done your whole life?

No they don't care because saying it out loud makes them look bad to others. Yes, its true, what they hided in their hearts in false humility Job is saying out loud that is the greatest offense of all!

This test is not from man, it is from wicked spirit forces in heavenly place manipulating every second of Jobs life: they have control of every thought, every action, and even with his false friends now missing in actions who think they can't be control by anything but their own will power!

What can they say when their self-judgment is about their hearts and motives being pure. Hence, to be used by the Devil makes them look bad, evil! Now that's the real story its about the interrogator justifying their evil as doing Job good, which truth is that all that matters their pure motives! Thus, God drew up hearts and got a hold of Satan darkness that he has been using since Able slaughter Cain!

Ephesians 6:12 For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world's rulers of the darkness of this age, and against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places.

No comforter for Job, but interrogated by false friends that Satan used in trying to pry some hidden evil out of Job he didn't confessed before God! Yes, an interrogation of Job's personality that they thought reflected his heart condition; doing exactly what Satan does each day to God's people!

Evil is questioning the accuser pure motives for Job, so what does that make them in questioning Job's motives?

Matt.7:1 "Don't judge, so that you won't be judged.

7:2 For with whatever judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you.

John 8:15 You judge according to the flesh. I judge no one.

That like going to a terrible car crash and finding a Christian's badly mangled and bleeding and they say a swear word in their pain and we judge them unworthy of God because they didn't act nice enough under trial like we have imagine Christian's do!

Was God worried about Job being nice, and/or acting nice enough?

Speaking of Christ God had this recorded for us:

Isaiah 53:3 He was despised, and rejected by men; a man of suffering, and acquainted with disease. He was despised as one from whom men hide their face; and we didn't respect him.

Acts 8:33 In his humiliation, his judgment was taken away. Who will declare His generation? For his life is taken from the earth."{Isaiah 53:7,8}

Accuser think it is the pure motives that protect them from evil spirit being. No, it is God hand, not their evaluation of their perfect personality that protects them, or that they think they are just so far above others in conduct!

Who would imputed such evil while someone is going through so much pain not unless they themselves are a fierce cruel beast waiting, and rejoicing in the kill!

Roman.3:11 There is no one who understands. There is no one who seeks after God. 3:12 They have all turned aside. They have together become unprofitable. There is no one who does good, no, not, so much as one."{Psalms 14:1-3; 53:1-3; Ecclesiastes 7:20}

3:13 "Their throat is an open tomb. With their tongues they have used deceit."{Psalm 5:9} "The poison of vipers is under their lips;"{Psalm 140:3} 3:14 "Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness."{Psalm 10:7} 3:15 "Their feet are swift to shed blood.

3:16 Destruction and misery are in their ways.

3:17 The way of peace, they haven't known."{Isaiah 59:7-8}

3:18 "There is no fear of God before their eyes." {Psalm 36:1}

You see personality niceness is not of God, it is of man, Christian's niceness is an idol that humans worship at instead of being in the Spirit and truth where no lie is, which is for us is in Jesus Christ.

1 John 2:21 I have not written to you because you don't know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth.

Revelation 21:27 There will in no way enter into it anything profane, or one who causes an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Revelation 14:5 In their mouth was found no lie, for they are blameless. {TR adds "before the throne of God"}

1 John 2:27 As for you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you don't need for anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you will remain in him.

2 Thessalonians 2:11 Because of this, God sends them a working of error, that they should believe a lie;

Accusers are not wretched sinner in their flesh they have good motives, questioning their purity of motive unleash a hate so deep it will kill a brother or sister over a word!

Rom.7:18 For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwells no good thing. For desire is present with me, but I don't find it doing that which is good.

7:19 For the good which I desire, I don't do; but the evil which I don't desire, that I practice.

7:20 But if what I don't desire, that I do, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me.

7:21 I find then the law, that, to me, while I desire to do good, evil is present.

*7:22 For I delight in God's law after the inward man,
7:23 but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity under the law of sin which is in my members.*

7:24 What a wretched man I am! Who will deliver me out of the body of this death?

Now in Job's dreadful condition false rich friends come to comfort Job in his trial. But they have only one purpose to find out what Job had done to bring God's judgment upon himself and his family.

The greater Job, Christ Jesus carried our sins, he looked plagued of God, false brothers stood in line to point out Christ sins, but they unwittingly were judging their own sins, for Christ was sinless to God as was Job, are we getting the picture?

Why does everything in a Christian's life have to be self-inflicted, and under their control?

These false comforters listen carefully to each word Job spoke analyzing them, critiquing them, isn't that what judges do, and isn't that exactly what Job needed someone to increase his torment by false accusation?

Luke 19:22 "He said to him, 'Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked servant! You knew that I am an exacting man, taking up that which I didn't lay down, and reaping that which I didn't sow.

Isn't that what real mature Christian's do to protect us from evil? Making every thought captive to guilt and if a denial comes out of our mouth that's a conviction making all their judgment right and we've brought troubles on ourselves all our troubles are self-inflicted!

Matthew 5:22 But I tell you, that everyone who is angry with his brother without a cause{NU omits "without a cause".} shall be in danger of the judgment; and whoever shall say to his brother, 'Raca{"Raca" is an Aramaic insult, related to the word for "empty" and conveying the idea of empty-headedness.}!' shall be in danger of the council; and whoever shall say, 'You fool!' shall be in danger of the fire of Gehenna.{or, Hell}

Denial of Demons

Weak fleshly minded Christian's teach and believe wicked spirit can't do anything to us, and if they do; we weren't perfect in every-way giving them opportunity to attack us? it all our own fault and we must confess our sins to be healed.

In other words, "I seen that sin in you, and now it finally manifest, God took away his hand allowing all this evil to come upon you!" And finally we've uncovered the truth God does test us with evil!

Moreover, if we are to be like God we must test each other with the same evil, right?

If looking foolish in our flesh is a conviction of guilt than all of God's children are guilty according to human logic!

1Cor.1:27 but God chose the foolish things of the world that he might put to shame those who are wise. God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong;

1:28 and God chose the lowly things of the world, and the things that are despised, and the things that are not, that he might bring to nothing the things that are:

1:29 that no flesh should boast before God.

2 Peter 2:10 but chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise authority. Daring, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries;

What is self-willed?

Its not God's will in us working through Jesus Christ, it is the will of our flesh that opposes God's will it cannot be in subjection to God no matter how logical and sound our reasoning might be!

Romans 8:5 For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

Romans 8:6 For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace;

Romans 8:7 because the mind of the flesh is hostile towards God; for it is not subject to God's law, neither indeed can it be.

Romans 8:8 Those who are in the flesh can't please God.

Romans 8:9 But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if it is so that the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if any man doesn't have the Spirit of Christ, he is not his.

2 Peter 2:12 But these, as unreasoning creatures, born natural animals to be taken and destroyed, speaking evil in matters about which they are ignorant, will in their destroying surely be destroyed,

The truth of their hearts of flesh teaches we must never trust anyone's motives, and every evil that comes into a person life must be God's correction of them.

But what if Job's trials really were out of his control what does that make us who sit in judgment of him? Wouldn't that also mean our world can be affected by evil spirits even against our personal will?

Things could actually happen to us out of our control? So what does that have to do with a wonderful prosperous life now that Christian's teach and religious organization promote, and sell for membership?

Isn't that what Christianity has been selling for years to all the nations of our earth?

Lets not tell them that Job story is real and has happen over and over again to true Christian's for thousands of years! Lets not tell the truth God didn't want Job to suffer but that God's promise of free will too all humans allows evil to come up all of us!

Yes, Satan is the ruler of this world, he has favorites that he uses to interrogate God's children, Satan himself is the accuser of us day and night. Wicked spirit ruler do powerful works they can take our judgment away and if false religion can hid that truth it makes them the arm of the Devil and the dwelling place of demons.

2Cor.4:3 Even if our Good News is veiled, it is veiled in those who perish; 4:4 in whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that the light of the Good News of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not dawn on them.

Lets cover up the truth about Satan, not expose him in the light; that he is the ruler our world and our battle isn't with flesh and blood but wicked spirit force in heavenly places. Lets not believe Satan can bless his own by powerful works, lying portents and signs lets make this all about self-will and Christian's judging the weakness in those that are under trial, because of some hidden sin they didn't take care of, certainly evil spirit are happy to assist in that work!

Christ was perfect without sin how did Satan have power to take Christ and show him all the kingdoms of the world if perfection of flesh stops demon control?

1 John 5:19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one.

1 John 4:5 They are of the world. Therefore they speak of the world, and the world hears them.

If we can turn this entire story about Job into what Job should have done, and how he should have said it. Well, than it nothing more than a story about judging and comparing ourselves measuring ourselves against Jobs mistakes so we are better Christian's, correct? In other words, it better to look like a Christian's than to be tested like all wheat Christian's must be!

Why didn't Christ compare his sinlessness against Job, why didn't Christ improve upon Job's personality flaws, or for that matter any of Christ apostles?

Appearance is everything to weed Christian, how we talk, walk, position ourselves religiously, what religion looks like in the flesh, what religious building we go to, how important events are performed for those we call the world, numbers, laws, and the list is endless.

Christianity is entertainment we taken all the world ways of promoting everything and mixed it into the unleavened bread of Christ justifying this evil mixture as doing some good because of our good motives it can't be bad and God certainly could not hate it!

James. 4:1 Where do wars and fightings among you come from? Don't they come from your pleasures that war in your members?
4:2 You lust, and don't have. You kill, covet, and can't obtain. You fight and make war. You don't have, because you don't ask.
4:3 You ask, and don't receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it for your pleasures.
4:4 You adulterers and adulteresses, don't you know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

James 2:19 You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and shudder.

If Demons don't exist and no one is affected by them than how are the nations worshiping them?

Revelation 9:20 The rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, didn't repent of the works of their hands, that they wouldn't worship demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk.

Revelation 16:14 for they are spirits of demons, performing signs; which go forth to the kings of the whole inhabited earth, to gather them together for the war of that great day of God, the Almighty.

Revelation 18:2 He cried with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and she has become a habitation of demons, a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird!

Job was made to look bad and evil to the eyes of his judges, to the eyes of his wife? And why was it so important that Satan made Job look bad in his flesh?

Well, that is a very simple question to answer Satan created this world from the sins of the flesh, the desires and lust of the flesh. So if looking bad really test us then perhaps we are in the camp of the accuser which would suit us better?

Romans 2:28 For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh;

2 Corinthians 4:16 Therefore we don't faint, but though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day.

2 Corinthians 10:12 For we are not bold to number or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding.

Christ carried our sins, he was made to look sick and plagued by God, no one looked at Christ sickness from the sins of others as a gift God that he allowed his Son to go through to save this world. No one at his time not even his apostles until they were born again into Christ by Holy Spirit and carried sins of others themselves being despised by the same world!

Isaiah 59:12 For our transgressions are multiplied before you, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know them:

Micah 7:19 He will again have compassion on us. He will tread our iniquities under foot; and you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

Matthew 9:2 Behold, they brought to him a man who was paralyzed, lying on a bed. Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, "Son, cheer up! Your sins are forgiven you."

Matthew 9:5 For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven;' or to say, 'Get up, and walk?'

Matthew 15:19 For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual sins, thefts, false testimony, and blasphemies.

1 Peter 2:24 who his own self bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live to righteousness; by whose stripes you were healed.

No! The judges of his time said Christ had a demon, he was a sinner, evil, and someone unclean can't speak for God. They judged the outward appearance not true righteousness from God.

Still today Christian's internalize Job's trials not as an undeserved gift of God's love so we can see the real truth of God, and why we all suffer on earth because of sheer evil of wicked spirit force that hate all goodness and righteousness of God and his people. Rather they judge any weakness as evil and condemned by God as wicked.

They think they can put away the filth of their flesh by religious works, giving, teaching, preaching, gift of mercy, but it is only Christ blood under suffering being falsely accused that saves us!

1 Peter 3:21 This is a symbol of baptism, which now saves you-- not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

It is the world of fleshly thinking; walking by sight and the love of looking good in our flesh that God is no part of and Christ suffered in don't be fooled that world is Satan ruler ship exposed by Job's trial!

John 17:14 I have given them your word. The world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

John 17:15 I pray not that you would take them from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil one.

1 John 3:1 Behold, how great a love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of God! For this cause the world doesn't know us, because it didn't know him.

1 John 2:16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, isn't the Father's, but is the world's.

God created mankind in his image, his image is love, he didn't created them by imputing evil too them, why?

Love does not impute evil, it that simple, if that not true than God is a liar. Adam and Eve where not created in distrust and fear, because love cast out distrust and fear. God is love, and if we do not know love, we don't know God.

1 John 4:18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment. He who fears is not made perfect in love.

1Cor.13:1 If I speak with the languages of men and of angels, but don't have love, I have become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal.

13:2 If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but don't have love, I am nothing. 13:3 If I dole out all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but don't have love, it profits me nothing. 13:4 Love is patient and is kind; love doesn't envy. Love doesn't brag, is not proud, 13:5 doesn't behave itself inappropriately, doesn't seek its own way, is not provoked, takes no account of evil; 13:6 doesn't rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; 13:7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. 13:8 Love never fails.

God did not create man to judge right and wrong, he created man to live in his love.

The God of love stated his love for Job, and if we know the God of love we cannot take the side of his accuser's, we start with trust in love and end in God's love the truth of Job trials its very simple.

God did not say to his only begotten Son Christ: "Jesus you are imperfect and displeasing so I will test you with evil on earth than and only than can I completely love and trust you".

Those words are Satan thoughts, it was never God's thoughts towards his Son. God, did not fail in creating a perfect man and woman on earth, he is not improving upon the a newer model, or a better version, why? God is love so he is perfect is all his ways, love can't fail what fails is our interpretation of God love!

What is God doing? He is doing as he state and has been doing, he exposing all darkness of evil, he is removing all darkness through his son's by conquering evil through the power of Jesus Christ in us.

God is undoing all the corruption of Satan evil promoting death through the glorious freedom of the son's of God.

That means is simple 101 Christianity removing our sins first conquers all darkness of Satan ruler ship over mankind than he moves on to breaking up all darkness through the body of Christ conquering the sins of this world.

1John.3:8 He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. To this end the Son of God was revealed, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

Job's trial is part of breaking up the works of the Devil by exposing sin in us by our judgments of Job, the Devil, and Job's false comforters!

Is God incomplete without having his son's on earth? Has God ever been incomplete? No! God is love, and love cannot fail; his children do not impute evil too God and they want to show their love for their heavenly Father like Job even if the enemy hates them. Satan says anyone suffering is not blessed of God. Satan says if you suffer God does not love you.

Then Satan says as the ruler of this world, if mankind says wicked spirit force control our earth and mankind they are evil and not taking personal responsibility for their faults!

Satan is the father of political correctness and wokeness he makes peer pressure a god in his kingdoms to control fleshly minded followers.

The question should be how is Satan the ruler of this world if he has no power over humans?

How is all the power of this world under his control, without power? Is God a liar, did Christ deceive us?

Satan says if you look bad to this world your not a good Christian's. Satan says if you are a good Christian's you have a prosperous life on earth.

Please let us understand the division of light and darkness, love for God in giving up this life, and darkness is imputing evil to God and others so we can keep this life as long as we can on earth.

God knows the foundation of his house, God knows every son of his before the founding of this world. God's will never leave or test us with evil. Those loving God see the big picture that a God of love could do nothing less than allowing mankind to choose right and wrong.

2 Timothy 2:19 However God's firm foundation stands, having this seal, "The Lord knows those who are his,"{Numbers 16:5} and, "Let every one who names the name of the Lord{TR reads "Christ" instead of "the Lord"} depart from unrighteousness."

John 10:28 I give eternal life to them. They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand.

John 10:29 My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of my Father's hand.

1 John 4:8 He who doesn't love doesn't know God, for God is love.

James.3:12 Can a fig tree, my brothers, yield olives, or a vine figs? Thus no spring yields both salt water and fresh water.

3:13 Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by his good conduct that his deeds are done in gentleness of wisdom.

3:14 But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, don't boast and don't lie against the truth.

3:15 This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic.

3:16 For where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed.

3:17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

3:18 Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

James.1:16 Don't be deceived, my beloved brothers.

1:17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, nor turning shadow.

1:18 Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.
